Cookies Policy

Solantis LLC

Introduction

Solantis LLC (hereinafter "the Company", "we", "us", "our", "ours" and "ourselves" as appropriate), is authorized and regulated by the Financial Authorities of Saint Lucia with license number 202500785.

This Cookie Policy applies to our website www.solantis.pro, its subdomains, mobile applications, and other digital platforms operated by the Company. It does not cover third-party websites or services that may be linked from our platforms, which are governed by their respective cookie and privacy policies.

1. Definition

Cookies are small text files stored on your device (e.g., computer, tablet, or smartphone) when you access websites. They are used to improve website performance, remember your preferences, and collect data for analytical purposes.

Cookies can be classified as follows:

First-party cookies:	Created and used by the website you are visiting for its own functionality.
Third-party cookies:	Created by external services integrated into the website to enhance functionality or track activity.
Session cookies:	Temporary cookies that expire when you close your browser.
Persistent cookies:	Remain on your device for a set duration or until manually deleted.

Cookies typically do not store personal information directly but may link to data you provide to enhance your user experience.

2. Why are Cookies Useful?

Cookies enable a more efficient and personalized browsing experience by allowing websites to recognize your device and preferences.

On our website, cookies are used to:

> Ensure core functionality and smooth operation.
> Remember your preferences, such as language and region.
> Analyze website performance and user behavior for optimization.
> Support personalized advertising and track marketing campaign effectiveness.

3. Categorization of Cookies

We utilize the following categories of cookies to enhance the user experience and functionality of our Website:

Essential Cookies:	Necessary for the basic operation of the Website, enabling secure logins and consistent navigation. Without these cookies, key features may not work properly.
Performance Cookies:	Provide insights into how users interact with the Website, helping us improve functionality and design. These cookies do not store personally identifiable information.
Functional Cookies:	Allow us to remember user preferences and provide enhanced, personalized features, such as language selection or saved login details.
Advertising or Targeting Cookies:	Track user behavior across websites to deliver personalized advertisements and measure the success of ad campaigns. These cookies are optional and can be disabled at any time.

Please be aware that if you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully benefit from all the features of our website or maybe experience errors at some point or function.

The cookies used on our websites:

> Do not store personal data such as passwords.
> Do not access any other information stored on your computer.
> Do not compromise the security of your device(s).

However - our cookies:
> Do allow us to provide essential services, such as enabling access to trading accounts.
> Do allow us to monitor the number of users accessing our website.
> Do allow us to track how users arrive at our website, whether through a search engine, email, or other sources.
> Do allow us to collect technical information, such as users' geographical location and the type of browser they are using.
> Do allow us to display advertisements on other websites to people who have previously visited our website, without identifying them personally.
> Do allow us to display content on our website that is more relevant to you based on your preferences and browsing behavior.
> Do allow our website to recall certain settings and preferences to make it easier for you to use.

4. Managing your Cookies

You can control your cookie preferences through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to block or delete cookies from your device. However, disabling certain types of cookies may impact the functionality of the Website. Alternatively, you can clear your browsing history to remove cookies already stored on your device.

5. Third Partie Cookies

We collaborate with third-party services, such as analytics providers and advertising networks, which may use cookies on our Website. These cookies enable additional functionality and tracking for purposes such as analytics and targeted advertising. You can manage these third-party cookies directly through their respective policies or via your browser settings.

6. Updates to this Cookie Policy

We may periodically update this Cookie Policy to reflect changes in technology, legal requirements, or our services. The latest version will always be available on this page, with the "last updated" date clearly displayed. We encourage you to review this policy regularly to stay informed about how we use cookies.
